

CURRICULUM VITAE
Priscilla Lundin, Esq.
Consultant

800-727-2766
plundin@epspros.com
www.epspros.com

EDUCATION

J.D., University of Virginia School of Law
M.A., University of Virginia Graduate School of Arts & Sciences (American History)

Yale University, cum laude
Major: American Studies

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Employment Practices Solutions, Inc.
Consultant

December 2025 to present

Conduct investigations into complaints of workplace misconduct. Provide guidance to employers on sound personnel practices, policies, and procedures. Facilitate training programs on a broad range of employment laws and issues, including investigation procedures, harassment and discrimination prevention, DE&I, effective hiring, disciplinary action and other workforce policies and practices. Provide one-on-one coaching to employees and leaders post-investigation.

Self-employed, New York, NY
Consultant

November 2021 - December 2025

Provided guidance to individuals regarding employment issues, including advisory comments on options, one-on-one coaching, and attorney referrals.

MTA Long Island Rail Road, Queens, N.Y.
General Attorney, Law Department

March 2003 - November 2021

Represented LIRR and individually named defendants represented by LIRR in federal and state court and administrative proceedings in employment-related litigation. Managed cases from pre-litigation phase through settlement, reporting to Deputy General Counsel. Provided guidance to management regarding compliance with applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations, and corporate and department policies and rules. Conducted complex investigations and prepared fact-finding memoranda. Coordinated with outside counsel regarding document production/responses to counsel requests, in criminal prosecutions of railroad disability fraud in federal court against LIRR retirees. Delivered ethics training and assisted stakeholders with compliance reporting.

MTA Long Island Rail Road, Queens, N.Y.

September 1999 - March 2003

Labor Counsel, Regulatory Affairs, Department of Labor Relations

Provided guidance to departments regarding investigations of employee complaints pursuant to applicable collective bargaining agreements. Trial Officer in high-profile disciplinary trials. Member, LIRR Diversity Council.

MTA New York City Transit, Brooklyn, NY

January 1995 - September 1999

Chief, Customer Assistance Division, Department of Customer Service

Reporting to Senior Vice President, oversaw seven managers supervising over 100 customer service agents in division responsible for travel information call center, executive correspondence, and employee suggestion program. Implemented Reduction-in-Force in accordance with agency guidelines. Supported public-facing customer service initiatives in coordination with senior management and division heads.

Self-employed, New York, NY

July 1992 - January 1995

Consultant

Provided guidance to former government employees regarding New York City ethics law complaints. Adjunct Professor, Professional Responsibility, Benjamin N. Cardozo Law School of Law, August 1992 - May 1994.

New York City Conflicts of Interest Board, New York, NY

March 1988 - July 1992

Executive Director/Counsel

Reporting to five-member Board, led operations of independent ethics agency that administers, interprets, and enforces conflict of interest and related ethics laws for all NYC public servants. Prepared Board agendas and drafted ethics opinions and annual reports. Oversaw managers responsible for staff attorneys, financial disclosure, and ethics training. Spokesperson for the Board. Served as liaison with NYC agencies and coordinated investigations of ethics complaints with the Board's investigative arm, the NYC Department of Investigation.

New York City Law Department, New York, NY

October 1983 - March 1988

Assistant Corporation Counsel, Affirmative Litigation Division

Collaborated with senior management in NYC agencies to investigate facts, interview witnesses, conduct legal research, and affirmatively bring complaints, primarily commercial cases, on behalf of NYC as plaintiff in federal and state court and in administrative proceedings. Member of the litigation/appellate team representing the NYC Human Rights Commission in state-court Human Rights Law case upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle, New York, NY.

September 1976 - October 1983

Associate

International law firm. Reported to partners and supervised junior associates and paralegals. Caseload included commercial litigation and insurance defense in federal and state court, state court appeals, and creditors' rights matters in complex Chapter 11 proceeding in federal court. Handled general corporate and regulatory matters for financial institution clients. Provided pro bono counseling to nonprofit organization clients.

LICENSE/CERTIFICATIONS

- Licensed attorney in the State of New York
- Employee Relations and Investigations Certificate (eCornell/Cornell ILR School)
- 28-hour Basic Mediation Training, Certificate of Completion - New York City Bar Association

MEMBERSHIPS

- American Bar Association
- NYC Bar Association, Lawyer Assistance Program Committee (past Chair)
- NYS Bar Association, Labor & Employment Section, Workplace Rights and Responsibilities Committee

PUBLICATIONS

Author, "Addressing the Threat of Fake Job Candidates," New York State Bar Association Journal, May 5, 2026, Copyright 2026 New York State Bar Association, www.nysba.org.